What is the time commitment?

We are seeking committed volunteers who can volunteer for at least six months, one to two times per month in our clinic. This is critical because of the time both you and our staff invest in training. Each role at CommonGood Medical is crucial to operations, and our goal is to provide the highest quality care to each patient who walks through our doors.

Can medical volunteers accumulate training hours?

For medical professionals needing hours to continue holding their licenses, we offer a place to serve and receive credentialing. Unfortunately, we are not equipped to provide training hours.

VOLUNTEER FAQS

How long is training?

Our on-boarding process takes about 3 weeks for non-medical and 2 months for medical, so you will feel supported and prepared to volunteer. You will have an orientation with one of our Team Leads, and the opportunity to shadow 2-4 shifts, if your application is accepted. After training is complete, you will be able to schedule your shifts using our volunteer app.

Who oversees volunteers?

The following paid staff oversee and interact directly with our volunteers:

Volunteer Coordinator, Credentialing Coordinator, Medical Director/MD, Nurse Practitioners, Registered Nurse, Clinical Manager/Medical Assistant, Referral Coordinator, CEO/Founder, Director of Operations, Director of Development, Director of Patient Services, Office Manager, Receptionist, Interpreter, and Counselor.

VOLUNTEER FAQS

Do you have to be a Christian to volunteer?

The only volunteer role where we request you to be a follower of Jesus Christ is the one of Patient Advocate.
